

6. How do Hindu brothers and sisters show their love for each other at a festival?

In this lesson, we will be talking about brothers and sisters. We will listen to the story 'Soni and Rishi's Raksha Bandhan' to find out more about how brothers and sisters might feel at Raksha Bandhan and the festival in general.

Vocabulary – Hindu, Raska Bandhan, siblings, festival

Being special: where do we belong?

Religious Education: EYFS

Unit Key Vocabulary – belong, welcome, baptism, family

3. Where do you belong? How do you know you belong? What groups do religious people belong to?

In this lesson, we will be talking about families and belonging to religious and non religious groups – like our school, place of worship, our class, maybe outside groups like football or dance. We will then be talking about our families and creating pictures to show who belongs in our family group.

Vocabulary – family, belong, group, together, religion

2.. Why do many Christians believe that children are special to God?

In this lesson, we will be looking at the story of Jesus blessing the children from the gospel of Mark 10:13-16 and discussing its meaning.

Vocabulary – Special, God, Jesus, I wonder

5. How are some babies welcomed in the Muslim tradition?

In this lesson, we will be learning about how Muslim's celebrate welcoming a baby into the world – Aqiqah and whispering the Shahadah. We will also learn that in lots of Muslim families the baby is also named and given something sweet and something bitter to taste to show they will have good times and hard times in life

Vocabulary – Muslim, religion, whisper, Aqiqah, Shahadah

4. How do we show people they are welcome? How are babies welcomed into the Christian family?

In this lesson, we will talk about the special celebration of welcoming babies into the world in Christianity – baptism. We will look at the ceremony, the special items needed and discuss these through pictures.

Vocabulary – baptism, christening, celebrating, cross

1. What makes us feel special? What makes many Christians believe they are special to God?

In this first lesson, we will be looking at the story 'The ugly duckling' and discussing what is so special about the character. We will then talk about what we are good at and share with the class their own ideas about how they are special.

Vocabulary – special, different, character